Pen Portrait: My name is Claire Thorpe. I am married to Ian and we have a Border collie called Stan. For the past ten years we have lived in Egton and before that in Station Cottages in Grosmont. Once I had graduated from Charlotte Mason College in Ambleside I took employment as an Outdoor Instructor which I did for five years and then moved onto teaching PE which is my current employment. I am a recently new school governor who was appointed by the LEA. I take great pride in being a governor at Egton School and love to visit whenever I can.
