Pen Portrait: I have been a teacher for 38 years and worked in Primary, Middle and Secondary schools as well as a long spell in North Yorkshire Special Needs Service. I have been a school governor and have been one in several schools for the past 30 years. I live in Rosedale Abbey and have a husband called David. He manages a Leisure Centre in Thornaby. We have three children, two daughters and a son. Vicki is a Secondary PE teacher in York, Charlotte is a junior teacher in Amport near Southampton and our son Jonathan works in logistics and controls the deliveries for Morrison's petrol tankers. We have lots of animals and love to spend our weekend's show jumping with our horses. We also like to watch Jonathan playing football or watch Vicki and Jonathan sprint and hurdle for York Athletic Club.
